

What it do?!

I'm gonna be honest, guys. I'm trying to cram this recap/update in between meetings, so it won't be organized player by player in order of standings. It's gonna be more stream of consciousness, so too bad if you're not a fan.

Here's where we stand at the moment.

A bunch of people (six!) decided to use the Jeanty Cheat Code this week, and it pretty much paid off. Nearly 200 yards and 3 touchdowns in the second quarter is un-freaking-believable, but unfortunately Boise State is like looking out for his health and stuff and rested him the entire second half. We had a few Jalen Milroe picks, and I just bring that up to remind everyone that VANDY BEAT ALABAMA this week. That will forever be hilarious to me. Spencer was able to hop onto the medal podium for the time being, while my boy, Dario, slips to 11th (his goal is top ten, so he's riiiiiiight there).

As violent as this week was on the AP top 25 teams, there wasn't nearly as much movement in the Stat Game as I'd expect (there were quite a few people picking the same players this week). Anyways, I've already had a few people send me their picks for this week, and I've even had someone with all four of their picks already done THIS week.

Anyways, as always send me your picks and good luck this weekend! I'm gonna enjoy this stress-free A&M bye week.
