

What's going on everyone?!

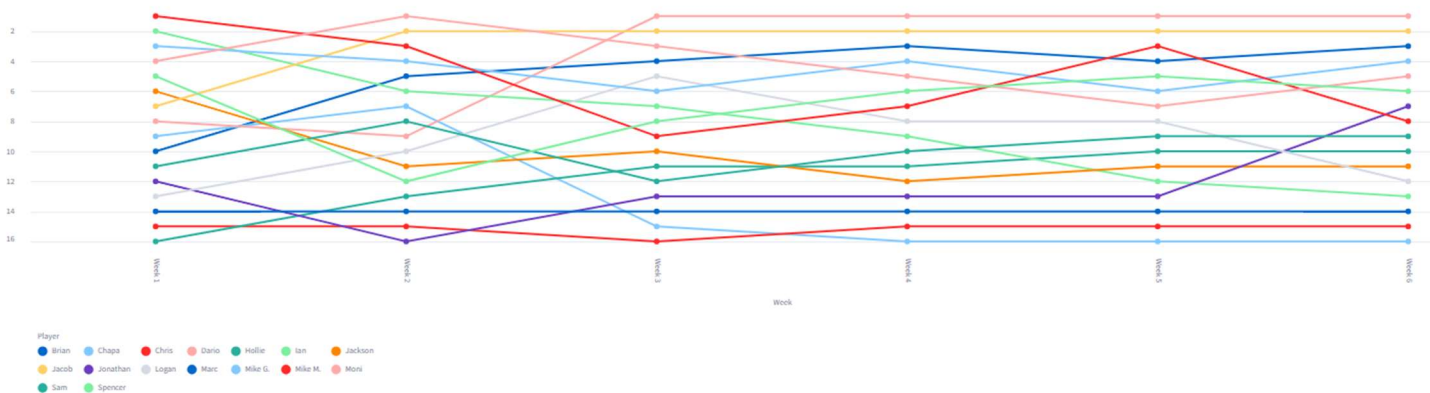

Did everyone catch a little weeknight CUSA last night? 49 straight days of football (with CUSA and MACtion doing a LOT of the heavy lifting there)!

Week 6 had all sorts of amazing results. Nico Iamaleava and UCLA beating Penn State and then not having enough fans for a proper field storming, so everyone who stormed the field got put in handcuffs is one of the funnier things I've ever heard. Texas getting bullied in the Swamp always makes my day (Florida has 9 sacks this season and SIX came against Texas – oof). Bama getting revenge on Diego Pavia and Vanderbilt (not a sentence I ever would've thought I'd say even 5 years ago), Cincinnati quietly looking like a top 3 team in the Big 12 after taking down Iowa State, Virginia escaping Louisville in overtime, THE BAYLOR/KANSAS STATE GAME! Did y'all see this? A Kansas State receiver catches the ball with very little time left, the defender grabs his facemask and rips his helmet off, the receiver STILL SCORES, but since his helmet came off, the play was blown dead. Then K-State settles for a field goal, and then Baylor goes down and kicks a field goal to take the lead. THEN K-State somehow gets another opportunity to kick a game winner, but Baylor blocks it!

Anyways, Dario is STILL holding down the fort here:

Rank	Player	Score	Pts. From 1st
1	Dario	2,248	0
2	Jacob	2,967	719
3	Brian	3,005	757
4	Mike G.	3,184	936
5	Moni	3,392	1,144
6	Spencer	3,533	1,285
7	Jonathan	3,796	1,548
8	Mike M.	4,019	1,771
9	Sam	4,038	1,790
10	Hollie	4,352	2,104
11	Jackson	4,391	2,143
12	Logan	4,503	2,255
13	Ian	4,575	2,327
14	Marc	5,121	2,873
15	Chris	6,694	4,446
16	Chapa	7,820	5,572

Rankings by Week

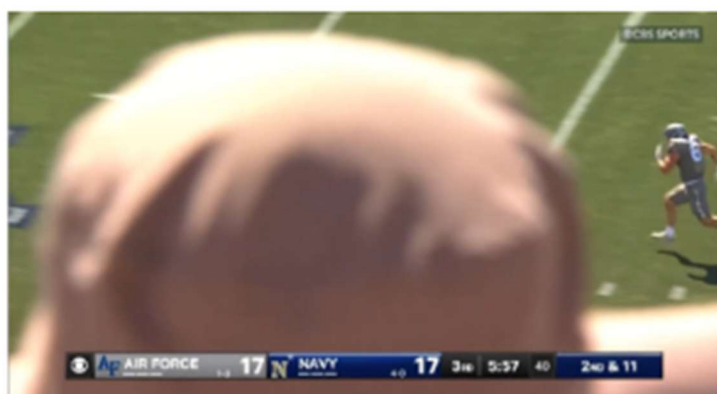

I just want to highlight a few picks and players here. Jonathan had not only the best score of the week (-56 points), but the best week of his season. Josh Hoover CRUSHED it against Colorado with 275 yards, 4 passing touchdowns, and 1 rushing touchdown in a 35-21 win. Michael Taffe had 7 tackles and an interception for Texas against Florida, while Ryan Williams had 98 yards and 1 touchdown. The best scorer he had this week was Navy's Blake Horvath as a rusher (-140 points). That's an incredible pick...but I will caution you here...at the end of the year, there's a week with only Army vs Navy. I hope a different player has a big game that week for you.

Brian also had his best week of the season led by three super solid picks. Brendon Lews (Memphis) threw for 266 and 3 (adding 1 rushing touchdown) against Tulsa, while Danny Scudero caught 151 yards and 1 touchdown as San Jose State beat New Mexico Friday night. And tack on Owen Long and his SIXTEEN tackles, and that's the recipe for a nice week.'

I also want to spotlight everyone who picked a duplicate player or a player on a BYE because the beatings will continue until morale improves. Mr. Mike Miller! You picked Sawyer Robinson this week against Kansas State (a great pick – he got -5 points). The only problem is you picked him two weeks ago against Arizona State (60 points). ALSO, you picked two Tennessee players against Arkansas. The problem? Tennessee and Arkansas play this weekend. Logan! My man. It's very understandable to want to pick any quarterback playing against Kent State. Look, I get it. Let's just not pick the one who's currently recovering from thumb surgery. Sam! Jordyn Tyson is undoubtedly an incredible receiver. I don't even think he can get official stats against the Bye week. Arizona State plays Utah this weekend. Chris is going for the record of most duplicate picks picked in a season. His Quinton Urwiler pick is his third duplicate of the season, but the best part about this one is the first time he picked Quinton Urwiler, he was on a bye week. So that means Quinton Urwiler has gotten Chris a combined 800 points so far. That's crazy!

As always, good luck this week and don't forget to submit your picks!

Week 6

WCU Western Carolina Passing

	C/ATT	YDS	AVG	TD	INT
Taron Dickens #5	53/56	378	6.8	3	0
TEAM	53/56	378	6.8	3	0

