

Long time, everyone!

What a season! There’s way too much that happened over bowl season to name it all, but how bout them Hoosiers?! Is this a safe space? Can I admit that I’m really jealous of Indiana and almost wish they hadn’t won?

Anyways, coming into this ‘week,’ Mike G. was 814 points behind me, Dario was 872 behind, and Brian was 878 behind. How did it all shake out at the top?

Rankings by Week

That's right! For the first time since the 2021 season, I'm the champion! Mike G. finishes second place for the THIRD YEAR IN A ROW, and Dario makes his medal podium debut, coming in third!

Congratulations to everyone!

Lastly, there's the matter of who had the best bowl season (and the $20 dollar winner). The ladies in this group seemingly win this all the time...what's up with that?! Anyways, spoiler. One of them won it!

HOLLIE WINS BOWL SEASON with a score of 392 points (it's now Jaxson Smith-Njigba vs Utah in the Rose Bowl like her last bowl week win), but CJ Bailey, Cale Hellums, and Chris Dawn Jr. stuck it out for her!

Just total Alvarez domination here:

1st Place: $100 – Jacob

2nd Place: $30 – Mike G.

3rd Place: $10 – Dario

Bowl Season Winner: $20 – Hollie

Thank you all for another fun season of our dumb, little stat game! It's really fun to follow, and I hope you enjoy it as much as I do!
